Client Testimonials

Lili GC has been the ever present support I needed to have hope through my breast cancer. The love, faith, cards, phone calls, prayers, texts, hugs, massage, BBQs, walks, events, healthy food & recipes, and the community Jen, Joel and the team at Lili GC provide is everything. There is nothing like it. There is an abundance of peace when you can surround yourself with people who "get it," and "get you." Lili GC is that safe, loving community when you're not okay and when you're scared and lonely. For me and my husband, it is a source of light that refills, replenishes and renews our spirits to keep going, keep smiling and inspires us to seek joy and truly live life through and after cancer.

Cancer wasn't on my bingo card for this year but cancer had a different plan. When I initially was told by my primary doctor I felt sick. Scared. So incredibly scared. I let a few of my close friends in on the diagnosis and one of them asked if it would be ok to give my name to the Lili foundation. I said yes, not knowing what to expect. Jen reached out and we set a date to meet for coffee. From the moment we met I felt so lucky to have someone with lots of knowledge and clearly lots of empathy. And that's how all my interactions with Lili have been. Kind supportive knowledgeable. Since they got my name this foundation has been supporting me. With text messages phone calls swag warrior bag gift card- with love. Having a squad of people to love on you when you are having a random panic attack or find yourself crying in the midst of this terrible disease is a godsend. They've shown me so much love. After I'm through with this journey it will become my favorite non profit to donate to! Thank you Jen and everyone at Lili GC I'm blessed to know you all
